Bosnia's Constitutional Court to Rule on Movement Restrictions – BIRN

April 14, 2020

BiH Constitutional Court President Zlatko Knezevic told BIRN that the court will rule on April 22 about the constitutionality of barring under-18s and over-65s from leaving their homes as part of measures to deal with the coronavirus pandemic.

The court has received several appeals since the civil protection headquarters in the country's Federation entity imposed the measure on March 20, Knezevic said.

The measure was amended earlier this month to allow minors to be transported in a car, while pensioners were allowed to leave their homes for four hours on weekdays last week to collect their pensions and buy medicines.

Council of Ministers Agrees on Distribution of IMF Financing – SeeNews

April 14, 2020

The Council of Ministers agreed Tuesday on how to distribute 330 million euro in coronavirus financing that the IMF is ready to extend to BiH.

At the session, headed by Bosnian prime minister Zoran Tegeltija, it was agreed that Bosnia's Federation entity will get 62% of the IMF funding, while the Serb Republic will receive the remaining 38%. In addition, both entities will each allocate 0.5% of their share to the Brcko district, the statement read.
